

Figure 3: Analysis of change of tree family composition over time in the Biosphere 2 tropical forest mesocosm (B2-TF) in comparison to forest plots from across the Americas using non-metric multidimensional scaling. Black points with yellow borders represent expectations if tree extinctions were random. Results show a significant shift in composition toward that of a tropical dry forest.

